Date of Detention Hearing: August 22, 2013.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

01 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

02 1. The Complaint charges defendant with possessing and distributing numerous 03 images and videos of child pornography including toddlers and infants. Defendant has resided 04 with his grandmother for most of his life. At the time of the execution of the related search 05 warrant, the home was occupied by 14 family members, including four children ages 7 to 3.5 06 weeks old. The case agent described the house as “squalor”. The Court was advised that the 07 children were initially taken into CPS custody, then returned to the parents, and will not be 08 returning to the home. At the time of arrest, defendant volunteered the information that his 09 niece would probably say that he touched her improperly, but that she was not telling the truth, 10 and that she would also say she was touched by another family member.

11 2. Defendant reported that he had recently purchased a hunting rifle, and there are 12 other firearms in the home. Defendant’s past criminal record includes a failure to appear for 13 arraignment in 2011 for a recreational fishing offense.

14 3. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to history of failing to appear and 15 recent controlled substance use. He poses a risk of danger due to the nature of the instant 16 offense, possession of a firearm and other firearms in the home, and questions raised about the 17 safety of the young children in the home.

18 4. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 19 reasonably assure the defendant’s appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 20 danger to other persons or the community.

21 It is therefore ORDERED:

22 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney

01 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 02 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

03 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 04 counsel;

05 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 06 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver 07 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 08 with a court proceeding; and

09 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
10 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services 11 Officer.

12 DATED this 22nd day of August, 2013.
